Universal Valve Co. Expands National Account Marketing's Sales Territory

For Immediate Release

(Elizabeth, NJ) March 2015 – Universal Valve Co., service station equipment manufacturer, has recently announced the expansion of National Account Marketing Inc.'s sales territory to include the state of Wisconsin.

Since 2006, Jack Horner, President of National Account Marketing, has been representing Universal Valve's product line in Northern Illinois. "Jack is the perfect fit for the territory. He brings product knowledge and experience as a seamless extension to our sales team," said Peter Mascis, Universal Valve's National Sales Manager.

For over 80 years Universal Valve Co. has been an industry leader in quality and innovation within the service station industry. Their product line includes valves, fittings, manholes, pipe guards, service station accessories, and signage.
